It is strongly recommended that the person responsible for the booth is present on the booth at the start and end times of the service hours of the security guard(s).

Exhibitors are advised to:

- not leave their booth unattended as long as visitors are still in the building
- cover all products or materials exhibited, or better, place them under lock and key. Exhibitors are required to close objects of value in closets or show windows with thick glass that can be closed by locks. No special safety containers are available. Neither the general security service nor the Organizing Committee nor the Exhibition Management can accept liability for thefts, losses or damages of any sort occurring during the day or at night.

Exhibitors exhibiting equipment of value should take out a complementary insurance policy.

Exhibitors who desire to have their booth placed under a particular supervision should apply separately with this order form.
